Texas Contemporary Art Fair Returns to Houston October 10 - 13, 2019 with 70 top international, national, and regional galleries along with a Focus Section for design dealers

Houston, TX - August 15, 2019 - Texas Contemporary returns to the George R. Brown Convention Center this October 10 - 14 for the fair's anticipated eighth edition.

Over 70 galleries from around the world, including galleries from Venezuela, Estonia, Scotland, Italy and London, will feature top modern and contemporary art in the center of Houston, Texas. The fair's reach will continue to expand into the region's influential and extremely dedicated collecting community.

This year, in addition to showcasing incredible galleries, the fair will have a Focus section for Design (Focus: Design), bringing in top dealers and designers from around the world further activating and engaging Houston's extensive Interior Design and Art Advisory network. First time exhibitors in this section will include Black Artists + Designers Guild from New York and Carol Piper Rugs from Houston.

Texas Contemporary will continue the fair's long standing relationships with the region's most influential institutions including CAMH (Contemporary Arts Museum Houston) - Texas Contemporary's long-term Beneficiary Partner, MFAH (Museum of Fine Arts Houston), The Menil Collection, Artpace, Asia Society Texas, Blanton Museum of Art, Ballroom Marfa, Discovery Green, Collectrium, and The Houston Design Center.
