**Texas Contemporary Art Fair Returns to Houston October 4 - 7, 2018 with 70 top international, national, and regional galleries for largest edition to date*****

Houston, TX - September 13, 2018 - Texas Contemporary returns to the newly refurbished George R. Brown Convention Center this October 4 - 7 with the fair's largest edition to date. Over 70 galleries from around the world will feature top modern and contemporary art in the center of Houston, Texas: "America's top state for business" according to CNBC's annual exclusive study, and the fair's reach will continue to expand into the region's influential and extremely dedicated collecting community.

Texas Contemporary's seventh edition will welcome Houston-based art world influencers including Moody Gallery, David Shelton Gallery, Cindy Lisica Gallery, Zoya Tommy Gallery, and Pablo Cardoza Gallery, exhibiting alongside New York City's ZieherSmith, Claire Oliver Gallery, Muriel Guépin Gallery, ACA Galleries, AH Contemporary, Absolut Art, Joseph Gross Gallery, Walter Wickiser Gallery, and Uprise Art as well as Denver's Robischon Gallery, and Los Angeles' Timothy Yarger Fine Art. Joining Texas Contemporary for their inaugural editions are two innovative Brooklyn galleries South Street Gallery and Space 776 as well as Los Angeles' Chimento Contemporary, San Francisco's CK Contemporary, and San Antonio's Southwest School of Art. Lending the fair a strong international component, Galeria Enrique Guerrero will return from Mexico City alongside Tokyo's Galerie Taménaga and KITAI, Changzhou's QingYunGe Gallery, London's Maddox Gallery and Quantum Contemporary Art, Buenos Aires' Imaginario Galeria de Arte, Paris' Nil Gallery, and Venezuela's Galeria Moro.

Texas Contemporary 2018 will continue the fair's longstanding relationships with the region's most influential institutions including CAMH (Contemporary Arts Museum Houston) - Texas Contemporary's long-term Beneficiary Partner, MFAH (Museum of Fine Arts Houston), The Menil Collection, Artpace, Asia Society Texas, Blanton Museum of Art, Ballroom Marfa, Discovery Green, Collectrium, and The Houston Design Center.
